THE SECOND WIFE.

They told me he had won before Another heart than mine,
And laid his first and deepest love
Upon an earlier shrine.

They said my spirit oft must grieve
If I my lot would cast
With one who held so sacred still Remembrance of the past.

I breeded not—my bark was launched
With his, on life's swift tide;
And earth holds not a happier heart
Than mine, his—second bride.

I know that he has had and lost
What life may ne'er give back;
The flowers that bloomed in freshness once
Have withered on his track.

I know that she, the angel called,
Locks out from you blue heaven,
A watcher o'er the earth-bound bound,
From which her own was riven.

Together do we oft recall,
This dream of other years;
Nor do I love him less to know
He once had cause for tears.

English Wealth and Luxuriousness.

Some of our New York Fifth avenue swells make very respectable attempts to do the "palatial" in their houses and style of living, and put forth ambitious efforts to imitate English country seats, in the possession of what the English would call a "snug box" on the Hudson river, and ten, twenty, or a hundred acres. An account before us, of the luxurious style of living among the English aristocracy, throws our parvenu pretenders considerably into the shade:

About sixty miles from London, is the estate of the Earl of Spencer, which comprises ten thousand acres divided into parks, meadows, pastures, woods and gardens. His library contains fifty thousand volumes, and is said to be the finest private library in the world. The Duke of Richmond's home farm consists of 23,000 acres, or over 35 square miles, and this in crowded England, which has in all an area of only 50,000 square miles, or just 32,000,000 of acres, giving were the land divided, but two acres to each inhabitant. The residence of the Duke is fitted up with oriental magnificence. Twenty-five race horses stand in his stables, each under the care of a special groom. The dishes and plates upon the table, are all of porcelain, silver and gold. His aviary is supplied with almost every variety of rare and elegant birds, and large herds of cattle, sheep and deer, are spread over the immense lawns.

The same authority from which we gather these facts says that the Duke of Devonshire's palace, at Chatsworth, excels in magnificence any other in the kingdom. He spends the whole of his enormous income. In the grounds about the house are kept four hundred head of cattle and fourteen hundred deer. The kitchen garden contains twelve acres, and is filled with almost every species of fruit and vegetables. A vast arboretum connected with this establishment, is designed to contain a sample of every tree that grows. There is also a glass conservatory, 387 feet in length, 112 in breadth, 67 in height, covered by 75,000 square feet of glass, and warmed by seven miles of pipe, conveying hot water. One plant was obtained from India, by a special messenger, and is valued at $10,000. One of the fountains, near the house, plays 276 feet high, said to be the highest jet in the world. Chatsworth contains 3,500 acres, but the Duke owns 96,000 acres in the county of Derbyshire. Within the entire is one vast scene of paintings, sculpture, mosaic work, carved wainscoting, and all the elegancies and luxuries within the reach of almost-boundless wealth and highly refined taste.

Five-sixths of the soil in England is divided among scarcely thirty thousand proprietors. There are twenty-nine bankers in London, whose transactions yearly embrace six or seven hundred millions sterling. This is one side of the picture. The struggles between capital and labor are fearful—the rich always becoming richer, and the poor poorer. Three hundred thousand persons die of famine in a year (?) and three hundred thousand voluntarily emigrate, to escape the same dismal doom.—Richmond Dispatch.

The Temperature of Soils Increased by Drainage.—In Report of a Committee of the Royal Agricultural Society of England, who examined the soil of Robert Clutterbuck, Esq., of Hineworth, Hertfordshire, drained by Mr. Bailey Denton, we find the following paragraph. On the point of temperature of soils drained and undrained, Mr. Denton's tables show a remarkable fact. It is thus: "That whereas the undrained land in January exhibited a temperature as low as 30° at 18 inches below the surface, the drained land never reached so low a freezing point at the same depth, although the temperature at the air above was recorded as 10° below the freezing point."

Elizabeth City county, Va., contains nearly 8000 inhabitants; there is not a single family compelled, from poverty, to depend on public charity for support—a fact which speaks loudly in favor of the industry of the people.

The Cincinnati Gazette states that rat-killing has become a staple amusement of that city, which now contains not less than twelve public rat-pits, all liberally patronized by terrors and men.

It is better to be laughed at than ruined—better to have a wife who cheapens every thing, and buys nothing than to be impoverished by one whose vanity will purchase everything, but whose pride will cheapen nothing.

Selling a Husband.

A Rich Case.—We have frequently heard of husbands being "sold"—figuratively—but we have now to record a bona fide transaction of that nature, which eclipses any thing of the kind we ever heard of: Charles Shroder was arrested by officer Baker, and brought before Squire Frick, charged with bigamy. Louisa Shroder, the first wife of defendant, alleged that herself and husband had been living apart for some time, and that she was just becoming tired of her lonely lot when it came to her knowledge that her "liege lord"— who also became tired of the same desolate lot of single blessedness—had joined himself in the bonds of wedlock, with Miss Buidetz, a pretty little brunnette. Mina, it seems, was keeping house for a man who has been absent in the country for some time, and took Shroder into the household as part and parcel of the "institution," when their nuptial facility was invaded by the attachment in the hand of officer Baker.

Upon the hearing of the case, Squire Frick committed Shroder to prison, which induced the two wives to hold a consultation and effect some arrangement for his liberation. After a number of plans and suggestions, the two finally concluded upon an arrangement, and at once proceeded to the Squire's office. The proposition was bold one and somewhat staggered the equanimity of the staid Squire. It was simply this: That for and in consideration of the sum of six dollars, "good and lawful money," the first wife of the imprisoned Shroder was to relinquish all right and title to him, and then he was henceforth to be the lawful property of Mina only. The Squire, of course, could not entertain the proposition, it being against the statutes. Somehow Shroder was released, and the parties consummated the above arrangement regardless of law or precedent.—Lancaster Express.

The "Husband Game."—A young and very rich man in Cleveland, a few days since, made the acquaintance of a blooming married woman in the street, and called upon her at her residence "when her husband would be down town." In the midst of his joy the husband appeared, raved furiously, swore, presented pistols, etc., and at the right moment the wife fainted. The young man trembled and asked for life. The husband relented, and agreed, after some parleying, to "settle" for $1300, which was paid. Subsequently the victim told his friends of the occurrence, and they caused the arrest of the guilty couple, who, becoming alarmed, paid back $1250, and were set free, both giving a release for all damage to wounded honor (?)

Locomotives in the Country.—The number of locomotives running in the United States, says the American Engineer, is probably over 9,000. The proportion of engines to length of road will average one to every three miles—for while some of the Western roads have but one to every five or six miles, many others, like the Erie, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, etc., have nearly one for every two miles. The Reading has about three engines for every two miles.

I have no respect for that self-boasting charity which neglects all objects of commiseration near and around it, but goes to the end of the earth in search of misery, for the purpose of talking about it.—Senator Mason.

A little child who rode fifty miles in a rail-road train then took a coach to his uncle's house, some five miles further, was asked on her arrival if she came in the cars. "We came," said she, "a little ways in the cars, and then all the rest of the way in a carriage."

Three small negroes, belonging to Mr. Dulin, near Falls Church, Fairfax county, Va., were found dead on Friday night week, in the feed box attached to his barn. It is supposed, that the negroes, in play, got into the chest, which is quite deep, and being too low to reach and open the heavy lid, they suffocated.

A young wife remonstrated with her husband, a dissipated spendthrift, on his conduct. "My love," said he, "I am only like the Prodigal Son—I shall reform by-and-by." "And I will be like the Prodigal Son, too," she replied, "for I will arise and go to my father." and accordingly off she went.

The New York council have awarded the Gen. Jackson snuff box to Garrett W. Dyckman, Lt. Col. of the New York Regiment in the Mexican war.

A Toronto paper chronicles the arrival of W. H. Seward, Ex-President of the United States.

Rare Old Wine.

We call wine old that the vintage of fifty years ago produced. But it is now and fresh compared with some that Bayard Taylor sampled lately, or a visit to the celebrated Raths-keller in Bremen, which boasts an age of over two hundred years.

Its only merit, however, is its age; and the aid of the imagination is required to make it "go down." A less poetic traveller than our friend Bayard, would hardly have emptied a bottle of the stuff, as he did, and fancied it delicious, merely because it was very old. His account of the adventure in the ancient wine-cellars is amusing, and we copy it, that our readers who have wine laid away in their cellars, to acquire age, may take warning not to keep it too long:

"In the 'Rost Cellar' are enormous casks, yet filled with Hochheimer (Hoek) of the vintage of 1624. For a couple of centuries it was carefully treasured, but the City Fathers of Bremen finally discovered that the longer it was kept the worse it grew, and now sell it to visitors in small bottles, at a moderate price.

"We sat down in one of the stalls in the outer cellar, and had a bottle uncorked. Think of drinking wine which grew when the Plymouth Colony was about four years old—the same vintage which Ariosto might have drunk, and Milton, and Cromwell, and Wallenstein, and Gustavus Adolphus! Shakespeare had been dead but eight years.

"It was simply this: That for and in consideration of the sum of six dollars, "good and lawful money," the first wife of the imprisoned Shroder was to relinquish all right and title to him, and then he was henceforth to be the lawful property of Mina only. The Squire, of course, could not entertain the proposition, it being against the statutes. Somehow Shroder was released, and the parties consummated the above arrangement regardless of law or precedent.

"Well, marm, if I was you when I did it, I'd put in lots of 'lasses."

"You good for nothing fellow, To make that poor woman churn it; it's strong and rank enough to churn itself."

"Be still, Ziba; it only wants working over."

"Well, marm, if I was you when I did it, I'd put in lots of 'lasses."

"Cause it's rank butter."

"You varmint, you. What makes you talk so smart?"

"The butter is taking the skin off my tongue, mother."

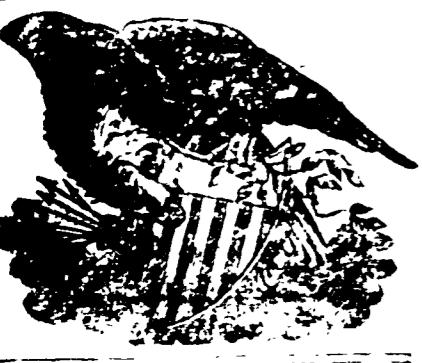

"Ziba, don't lie. I can't throw away the butter. It don't signify."

"I'll tell you what I'll do with it, marm; I'll keep it to draw blisters.—You ought to see the flies keel over and die as soon as they touch it."

"Ziba, don't exaggerate; go to the store and buy a pound of fresh."

Exit Ziba.

Monday Morning, Aug. 17, 1857.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

WILLIAM F. PACKER, of Lycoming.

CANAL COMMISSIONER,

NIMROD STRICKLAND, of Chester.

JUDGES OF THE MUSKIE COUNTY,

WILLIAM STRONG, of Berks,

JAMES THOMPSON, of Erie.

The Next House of Representatives.—

Elections of members of the House of Representatives of the next Congress have now been held in all the States of the Union with the exception of Maryland,

Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana.

The Washington Union makes the result as follows: Democrats 110,

Republicans 91, Americans 8, vacancies

2. Supposing no changes to occur in the remaining four States where elections are to be held, the next House of Representatives will stand as follows:

Democrats 125, Republicans 91, Americans 16, vacancies 2. The House consists of 234 members—118 constituting a majority. The Democratic majority, therefore, will be 10—subject, however, to any changes that may occur in the States yet to vote.

United States Senators.—The Legislatures of Tennessee, Virginia, Texas,

Kentucky and Alabama are to elect

United States Senators at their next sessions. Tennessee has to choose two,

Hunter and Wise are prominent candidates in Virginia. Ex-Governor Powell, ex-Secretary Guthrie, Hon. Geo.

W. Johnson, Hon. Wm. Preston, and

Hon. John W. Stevenson are spoken of in Kentucky by the Democrats. Gen.

McCullough, the Texan Ranger, will probably be Gen. Rusk's successor from Texas.

The Kentucky election secures

the return of a Democratic United States Senator in place of Hon. John

B. Thompson, Know Nothing. This

State, with the exception of a few months' service by Mr. Merriweather,

under the executive appointment, has never been represented in the United States Senate by a Democrat.

Kansas Affairs.—A Washington letter of Tuesday says:—Governor Walker, according to advices received to-day, is besieging the city of Lawrence. He has set his force quietly down before it, to await the movement anticipated from those within it. The dispatch says that the Topeka constitution is to be adopted by a nearly unanimous vote—meaning, of course, unanimous in Lawrence. In other parts of the territory it is represented that the Democratic party has a majority of the resident population.

If the Free State party has the strength to adopt the Topeka constitution, they will reject any constitution which the legal territorial convention may adopt in September. Congress will reject the Topeka constitution and probably pass a law authorizing the call of a convention for the formation of a constitution. It is still uncertain whether Lane and Robinson and other

Free State leaders intend to provoke a collision with the United States authorities.

The Prospect in Ohio.—A patron residing in Ohio—in a letter enclosing the amount of a year's subscription for the Compiler in advance—remarks:

The prospect of Ohio being redeemed from the hands of Chase, Gibson &

Co., (the Treasury-sharks,) is very flattering. The nominations that have just been made by the Ohio Democra-cacy, give general satisfaction. H. B.

Payne, the nominee for Governor, is an excellent man; not a political hack nor office-seeker, but an honest and straightforward Democrat, and an excellent speaker. In fact, he is just the kind of man that will do honor to the Gubernatorial chair of Ohio. Our motto is,

"Ohio must and shall be redeemed!"

Judge Davison has refused to admit Mrs. Cunningham to bail. The New York journals are hinting that some further discoveries respecting the murder of Dr. Burdell are likely to come out of the recent Cunningham farce.

A New York correspondent of the Boston Journal says that Dr. B. was killed soon after he entered his house at seven o'clock that evening; and that the person who entered the front door at eleven was the assassin, with Dr.

B. a cloak and hat on.

Newspaper Change.—Gen. Bowman

has disposed of the Bedford Gazette, which paper he has edited with ability for about twenty-five years, to Messrs.

D. F. Myers and G. W. Benford.

Boston paper states that a young and remarkably handsome lady has been arrested in that city for obstructing the side walks by a great display of crinoline. The lady was fined five dollars and costs, which she paid.

Governor Wise is an invalid at

Jordan's Springs, Virginia.

Judge Wilmett Know Nothing.

In speaking of existing parties, draw the following contrast: "There is just the true sense of that term as a party designation. He may be a 'Woolly Head' as much as he pleases, but he has, in his recent letter, declared himself, in principle, a faithful disciple of 'Sam.' He stands on the Know Nothing platform of principles and avows them as his own. We care not (remarks the York Press,) in what guarded phrase he may have made the avowal. We care not for the manifest and studied caution with which he has taken his position. The position itself is unmistakable, and is that of an advocate and supporter of rank, unmitigated Know Nothing."

Here then we have the doctrine of proscription, revived in its full extent. It matters not that the advocates of Know Nothingism disavow the doctrine. It is proscription and nothing else. The proscription of Catholics on account of their religion, and foreigners on account of their birth, is the soul of the system. If it is not, that is nothing, and neither Judge Wilmett nor any of his followers can so delude them believe otherwise. Proscription and Know Nothingism are convertible terms. We had thought that as a party policy, Know Nothingism had become a thing as effete and marrowless as an Egyptian mummy, and that its skinny remains were to be forever laid aside among the relics of the folly and wickedness of other times. But it seems not. Judge Wilmett takes the loathsome carcass in his arms and huggs it to his bosom. He will find it a vain and powerless attempt, however, to breathe into it the breath of life. Contact may destroy his own political vitality, but can never infuse any into the carcass.

Must Stand It!

The Clinton Democrat says that the dog days appear to have about the same effect on Republican editors as they have on the canine species. All around us they are snapping and snarling, as though they imagined that ill-humor, hard names, and vile epithets, were means of improving their dreary prospects. Gentlemen—perhaps we should ask public parlour for such use of that term—permit us to remind you that such a course of conduct will not relieve you of your misfortunes; your doom is before you and you must endure it—you need not apply hard names or epithets to us, for they won't stick—and you cannot make your black cause look white by trying to blacken other causes and people. Take our advice, then; endure your defeat coolly and placidly; and above all, do not fly into a passion because of the certainty of it.—

Negro Republican Plog Ugly. Know Nothingism is down, WILMETT must go down with it, and you must go with them. Then you will have reached the lowest depth, and then you can get some other humbug to rally around. In the mean time, "keep cool."

As evidence of the correctness of the policy of the Administration in Kansas, it is a fact worthy of mention that the most respectable of the old organs of the Whig party, are endorsing both the correctness and patriotism of that policy. Thus, the National Intelligencer is out with a long and able leader of this character. The New York Commercial Advertiser does the same thing. They all pronounce the present defiant attitude of Lane and his Topeka party in building up a government within a government as a rank rebellion, not only against the laws of the Territory, but against the laws of the United States.

We do not hesitate to say that ninety-nine in one hundred of all the thieves, murderers, blacklegs, gamblers, rowdies, shoulder-hitters, disablers, or "set d'namites," in fine of all villains, who have adopted the Democratic ticket.—New Haven Courier.

This is the old slang, but as Republicanism claims to have nothing black about it but its principles, and to possess all the honesty of the nation, the Detroit Free Press says the late State Treasurer of Ohio, a Republican, is a defaulter to the amount of $700,000 or $800,000; the Treasurer of Sandusky county, Ohio, a Republican, is a defaulter to the amount of $5,000; the Treasurer of Van Wert county, Ohio, a Republican, is a defaulter to the amount of $1,215; the Treasurer of Delaware County, Ohio, a Republican, is a defaulter to the amount of $18,000!

"Boys," said a colored individual, disclosing a small coffin which he carried along under his cloak, "Boys, don't laugh—I've a funeral."

An old woman out west is collecting all the Republican newspapers she can lay her hands on, to make soap of. She says they are a "despot right better than ashes—they are most as good as clear lie."

Gon. Lane has been re-elected to Congress from Oregon by a handsome majority.

Look Out for Counterfeits.—A number of counterfeit $5 bills on the York Bank, Pennsylvania, are in circulation at Harrisburg, and will doubtless find their way here. They are said to be well executed, and liable to deceive even experienced judges of bank paper. The Harrisburg Herald mentions a gentleman who took $15 of this trash before he discovered it was counterfeit.

The most fashionable amusement among our young men just now is chasing hoop.

A Just Contrast.

The Lynchburg (Va.) Republican, in speaking of existing parties, draws the following contrast: "There is just the true sense of that term as a party designation. He may be a 'Woolly Head' as much as he pleases, but he has, in his recent letter, declared himself, in principle, a faithful disciple of 'Sam.' He stands on the Know Nothing platform of principles and avows them as his own. We care not (remarks the York Press,) in what guarded phrase he may have made the avowal. We care not for the manifest and studied caution with which he has taken his position. The position itself is unmistakable, and is that of an advocate and supporter of rank, unmitigated Know Nothing."

The indications are that notwithstanding the success which attended the gerrymandering efforts of the Know Nothings a few years ago, the Democrats have carried both branches of the State Legislature by decided majorities, thus securing the election of two U. S. Senators. It is believed that the majority for Gen. Harris, the Democratic candidate for Governor, will exceed 10,000.

The delegation to the next Congress will probably stand 7 Democrats to 3 Know Nothings—a Democratic gain of 4.

North Carolina.—In the second, third, fourth, seventh and eighth congressional districts the Democrats have elected their candidates by very large majorities. In the first and sixth districts the contest was close, but the Washington Union believes has resulted in the election of both the Democratic candidates. In the fifth district the Know Nothing candidate is elected.

Democratic Nominations.—The Democrats of Frederick county, Md., assembled in convention in Frederick city on Saturday week and made the following nominations: For Clerk of County Court—Edward Shriver; Register of Wills—George Hosking; Senate—Geo. R. Dennis; House of Delegates—John Ritchie, James II. Steele, John F. Simonds, Daniel Koller, Samuel Bowles and H. T. Deaver; Commissioners—Joshua Motter, John Stockman, Ezra Cramer, James H. Boswell and Lelius Griffith; Sheriff—Peter Goodmanson.

A capital ticket, which deserves to be triumphantly elected—and if our friends across the line but bestir themselves, we shall feel hopeful of such a result.

It is reported that Geo. Sanderson, of the Lancaster Intelligencer, will be appointed Treasurer of the Mint at Philadelphia.—Exchange.

Whether true or not, he ought to be appointed, and we hope is. The office is a good one, and therefore such an one as a good editor deserves. Mr. Sanderson is one of the oldest and best editors in the State, always energetic and able, and like all such men has received but little reward for it, because he does not work for reward! We trust, however, that for once Madam Rumor is not lying, and that the Mint at Philadelphia will be honored with the presence of Mr. Sanderson as its Treasurer.—Clinton Democrat.

Let It Slide.—Rev. William Beecher, in a speech at North Brookfield on the 4th, is said to have made use of the following expression: "God help the Union to slide to perdition!"

While so many of his self-styled ministers are giving it a lift that way, says the Boston Post, we don't see much inconsistency in the Secretary Dobbin.—The incident to which the Hon. James C. Dobbin owed his Cabinet appointment is thus given in an extract from a paper:

"He was in the Baltimore Convention, and was the instrument of Gen. Pierce's nomination. On the 48th ballot Pierce had 55 votes, the largest number he had received. The 49th ballot commenced, and twelve States voted, with but slight changes from the previous ballot. Then, as the State of North Carolina was called, Mr. Dobbin rose, and in a timely speech announced that his delegation cast their votes for Franklin Pierce, which fact at once secured the nomination for the latter gentleman."

A Clerical Horse-Jockey.—A few days since a minister in Seneca Falls, N. Y., hired a livery horse and wagon to go on a journey. He was absent two days, swapped horses six times, and came back to the stable with the same horse he took out, having made $100 by his operations.

A Pedestrian Feat.—A party of pedestrains reached the Tip-Top House, Mount Washington, N. H., on the 5th of August. Up to that time they had walked 184 miles. They climbed up to the summit of Mount Washington via Tuckerman's Ravine, &c., passing thro' the great snow arch, which is 75 feet long, 10 feet high, and 25 feet wide!

Northern Capital at the South.—The Memphis Navy Yard grounds have been sold for $300,000 to an association of Northern capitalists, who will establish thereon several factories and a repairing dock.

Ingenious Mode of Escape.—On Saturday a convict escaped from the State prison at Sing Sing, N. Y., by throwing a plank in the river, on which he got ashore, when his fellow convicts covered him with shavings from the shops. In this guise he floated with the tide past the wharves, and has not been heard of since.

The wheel of fortune is continually turning; those that are up to-day may be down to-morrow, and those that are down to-day may be up to-morrow, as witness the following:—A beggar girl, who solicited alms in the streets of Philadelphia, got taken to California a few years since, grew into handsome girlhood, won the admiration of a millionaire there, was married to him, and has recently returned to Philadelphia, equal in beauty and wealth to any of those whom she formerly sought charity.

The Big Safe.—Measuring 54 feet high, by 44 feet wide, and weighing 4,000 pounds, has been attracting much attention at the office of the Farmer's or Mechanic's Savings Institution, in S. W. corner of the public square. Everybody nearby in town has been to see it. Our friends from the country have been, and still drooping in to see it, the largest safe ever brought into the country.

This safe furnishes another ground for confidence to depositors. The security with which they make is of the same character, and as extensive as though afforded by a bank to its depositors, the stockholders in the one and the other being in the same manner liable. The safe keeping of the deposits and the security to depositors thus afforded, should suggest to those thinking of depositing their monies where, instead of tying life, they will produce interest in the Society's institution.

There are occasions when even the healthiest people need medicine, the change of diet, of the weather, and hundreds of other causes, produce a laxity in the system that needs correcting, or in other words, the liver becomes slightly deranged, and needs a stimulant. If all who find themselves in this situation will try Dr. Sauford's Invigorator, they may be sure of relief, as we can testify to its efficacy in curing Headache, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, and other ill-consumptions in a family. It acts as a medicine easier and better than any dose of pills we ever swallowed, and is so mild that the smallest infant can take it.

Wool's Hair Restorative.—This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative. —[Moline Workman.]

Sold by all Druggists. Aug. 10, 2d.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Possessed of these remedies, every man is his own family physician. If his wife and children are troubled with eruptions, sores, tumors, white swellings, sore throat, asthma, or any affection of the skin, glands or muscles, a persevering use of the ointment is all that is necessary to produce a radical cure. If on the other hand the internal organs are assailed by disease, whether it be located in the liver, the stomach, the intestines, he can eradicate it by administering the pills to the sufferer, under the guidance of the clear directions which accompany each box.

The Cornwall Ore Banks.

These immense deposits of iron-ore, at Cornwall, Lebanon county, a short distance from the borough of Lebanon, are among the natural wonders of the world. To the proprietors, the Messrs. Coleman, they are an inexhaustible source of wealth. They have been frequently described in the local newspapers, and yet the great mass of the people of the State, even those living in the immediate neighborhood, are ignorant of their existence, except by name. At the Lebanon Valley Railroad, now open, in connection with the North Lebanon Railroad, conveys the traveler directly to the spot, we cannot do better than advise summer tourists to visit Cornwall. The annexed brief description of the ore-banks, will show that to the man of science, the geologist, and even the more seeker after novelties for the sake of diversion, a sight of them cannot be otherwise than interesting:

"There appear to be three conical mounds, heaved up from two to three hundred feet above the level of the plain, and covering an area of about ninety acres, the entire contents of which, is a mass of the purest and best iron-ore in Pennsylvania. There is no removing super-abundant earth, and sifting and sorting ore here, and no miners required. The whole hill is cut down in benches, as contractors would remove gravel for an embankment, and every pound dug is iron-ore, that neither requires roasting nor preparation before going into the furnace. These mounds have been worked one hundred years, and they look as though they might last for a thousand more."

"We learn that Mr. Worrel, competent engineer, has made a measurement of the mines, from which he estimates them to contain forty millions of tons of ore above the water level; and it is quite probable that there is twice as much below the water level. According to this estimate, here is a single tract of land occupying the room of an ordinary Pennsylvania farm, that would pay the whole debt of the State and leave a large surplus."

"This ore is now being sold and worked up at the rate of about four hundred tons per day, and when the Lebanon Valley Railroad is built, two thousand tons of a day may be sold. All that is now taken away has to be hauled in wagons over a plank road five miles to the Union Canal. When the railroad is finished tracks can be built into the pits, and the ore shoveled into the cars from the banks, and these mounds will furnish trade for a railroad for a hundred years to come. What a magnificent estate—what an invaluable deposit is here, being enough to make iron for ten railroad trucks round the entire world, including sea and land!"

Shrewsbury Camp Meeting.—The camp meeting for Shrewsbury circuit, will be held in Lowe's woods, near the Freeland Depot, and upon the line of the Northern Central Railroad, commencing August 20th, and will be in charge of Rev. A. A. REESE, Presiding Elder, and Revs. HENRY FULTON and F. E. CREVER. The camp is located in a beautiful grove a short distance beyond the Maryland line.

Poisons and Antidotes.—A distiller in Kentucky publishes a letter in the Old Farmer, in which he says he has discovered an effective remedy for the hog cholera, which has been prevailing so extensively in the West. His remedy is, as soon as he finds the hogs beginning to get sick or to die, to mix a quantity of arsenic with their food, and that invariably makes them healthy again, the powerful mineral poisons of the arsenic overcoming the vegetable poison in the still slops. We wish to urge the inquiry how far the effect of this double poisoning, neutralizing, etc., affects the character of the meat for food. What laws regulate the poisoning of living flesh? And is it, or not, possible to maintain an animal in tolerable health while its meat is by organic or inorganic poisons made seriously objectionable?

A New White House.—The Washington correspondent of the Press, Col. Wm. McCREARY, says that "there can be little doubt that the erection of a new Presidential mansion will be one of the measures that will receive the favorable action of the next Congress." The propriety of the measure will not be questioned, we imagine, by any one except those who may have a desire to make way with our Presidents soon after their election.

The papers give an account of a recent difficulty in Louisville, between Geo. D. Prentiss, editor of the Journal, and R. T. Durritt, editor of the Advertiser, and state that Prentiss was laid low by Durritt, and shot at him three times. Durritt returned the compliment, and shot twice at Prentiss, but nobody was hit or hurt. Prentiss, when he made the attack, was surrounded by a crowd of friends, all armed to the teeth, and prepared to back him. The parties concerned in the affray were arrested on Wednesday, and held to bail in $5,000 each to keep the peace.

The Father of Battlegrounds.—On the 11th ult., Mrs. Murrell, residing on Hood's creek, Blount county, N. C., killed a rattle-snake which measured 16 feet 4 inches in length, 20 inches around the body, 34 inches across the head, and having fangs one inch above the clear of the flesh. His rattles had nearly all decayed, only nine being left, which were whitish and full of holes, as it eaten through by insects. He was thought to be at least 30 years old.

St. Louis, August 5.—The Kansas correspondent of the Democrat says that Governor Walker is still encamped at Lawrence, and his force has been increased.

A new and dangerous counterfeiter note on the Bank of Kentucky has been recently issued at Louisville. It is admirably executed.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS,

FOR GOVERNOR.

WILLIAM F. PACKER, of Lycoming,
CANAL COMMISSIONER;
NIMROD STRICKLAND, of Chester,
JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT;
WILLIAM STRONG, of Bucks;
JAMES THOMPSON, of Erie.

The Next House of Representatives.—Elections of members of the House of Representatives of the next Congress have now been held in all the States of the Union with the exception of Maryland, Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana. The Washington Union makes the result as follows: Democrats 110, Republicans 91, Americans 8, vacancies 2. Supposing no changes to occur in the remaining four States where elections are to be held, the next House of Representatives will stand as follows: Democrats 125, Republicans 91, Americans 16, vacancies 2. The House consists of 231 members—118 constituting a majority. The Democratic majority, therefore, will be 16—subject, however, to any changes that may occur in the States yet to vote.

Judge Wilmetta Know Nothing. It is important to the people of this noble old Commonwealth to know, that Judge Wilmetta is a Know Nothing in the true sense of that term as a party designation. He may be a "Woolly Head" as much as he pleases, but he has, in his recent letter, declared himself, in principle, a faithful disciple of "Sam." He stands on the Know Nothing platform of principles and avows them as his own. We care not (remarks the York Press) in what guarded phrase he may have made the avowal. We care not for the manifest and studied caution with which he has taken his position. The position itself is unmistakable, and that of an advocate and supporter of rank, unmitigated Know Nothing.

Here then we have the doctrine of proscription, revived in its full extent. It matters not that the advocates of Know Nothing disavow the doctrine. It is proscription and nothing else. The proscription of Catholics on account of their religion, and foreigners on account of their birth, is the soul of the system. If it is not that, it is nothing, and neither Judge Wilmetta nor any of his followers can so delude the people of Pennsylvania, as to make them believe otherwise. Proscription and *Know Nothing*ism are convertible terms. We had thought that as a party policy, *Know Nothing*ism had become a thing as effete and narrow as an Egyptian mummy, and that its skinny remains were to be forever laid aside among the relics of the folly and wickedness of other times. But it seems not,—Judge Wilmetta takes the loathsome carcass in his arms and hangs it to his bosom. He will find it a vain and powerless attempt, however, to breathe into it the breath of life. Contact may destroy his own political vitality, but can never infuse any into the carcass.

Must Stand It!

United States Senators.—The Legislatures of Tennessee, Virginia, Texas, Kentucky and Alabama are to elect United States Senators at their next sessions. Tennessee has to choose two, Hunter and Wise are prominent candidates in Virginia. Ex-Governor Poyell, ex-Secretary Guthrie, Hon. Gen. W. Johnson, Hon. Wm. Preston, and Hon. John W. Stevenson are spoken of in Kentucky by the Democrats. Gen. McCulloch, the Texan Ranger, will probably be Gen. Rusk's successor from Texas.

The Kentucky election secures

the return of a Democratic United States Senator in place of Hon. John B. Thompson, Know Nothing. This

State, with the exception of a few months' service by Mr. Merriweather,

under the executive appointment, has never been represented in the United States Senate by a Democrat.

Kansas Affairs.—A Washington letter of Tuesday says:—Governor Walker, according to telegrams received to-day, is leaving the city of Lawrence. He has set his force quietly down before it, to await the movement anticipated from those within it. The dispatch says that the Topeka constitution is to be adopted by a nearly unanimous vote, meaning, of course, unanimous in Lawrence. In other parts of the territory it is represented that the Democratic party has a majority of the resident population.

If the Free State party has the strength to adopt the Topeka constitution, they will reject any constitution which the legal territorial convention may adopt in September. Congress will reject the Topeka constitution and probably pass a law authorizing the call of a convention for the formation of a constitution. It is still uncertain whether Lane and Robinson and other Free State leaders intend to provoke a collision with the United States authorities.

The Prospect in Ohio.—A patron re-

siding in Ohio—in a letter enclosing

the amount of a year's subscription for the Compiler in advance—remarks:

"The prospect of Ohio being redeemed from the hands of Chase, Gibson & Co., (the Treasury sharks) is very flattering. The noinations that have just been made by the Ohio Democracy, give general satisfaction. H. B. Payne, the nominee for Governor, is an excellent man; not a political huck nor office-seeker, but an honest and straightforward Democrat, and an excellent speaker. In fact, he is just the kind of man that will do honor to the Gubernatorial chair of Ohio. Our motto is, 'Ohio must and shall be redeemed!'

Judge Davison has refused to admit Mrs. Cunningham to bail. The New York journals are hinting that some further discoveries respecting the murder of Dr. Burdell are likely to come out of the recent Cunningham farce. A New York correspondent of the Boston Journal says that Dr. B. was killed soon after he entered his house at seven o'clock that evening, and that the person who entered the front door at eleven was the assassin, with Dr. B.'s cloak and hat on.

Case of Cholera.—It is stated that a case of pure and unmistakeable Asiatic cholera occurred in Newark, N. J., on Saturday week, and the cause assigned is the filthy condition of the out-houses in the neighborhood where the case appeared. Two deaths from cholera also took place last week in New York city.

Jordan's Springs, Virginia.

Just Contrast.

The Lynchburg (Va.) Republican, in speaking of existing parties, draws the following contrast: "There is just the Kentucky Election—the Democrats contrast between the Democratic party, have certainly eight of the ten members of Congress, the State Treasurer by the party by which it is opposed of the Know Nothings, when they had the uncontrollable power. The Madison Democrat tells us that in that county in 1855, Gov. Morehead, the candidate of the Know Nothing party, obtained a majority of four hundred and seventy-seven votes; this was reduced at the Presidential election in November last to two hundred and fifty-five, and at the election on Monday week, one of the Know Nothing candidates was elected by a majority of only twenty-six votes, and the other by only seventy. Even this majority, small as it is, was brought about by excluding in the town precinct all naturalized citizens from the right of suffrage, whose papers were not two years old, and all whose papers were certified by County or City Courts, and by excluding others legally entitled to vote. One man, who was a legal voter and a native citizen, who avowed his intention near the polls to vote the Democratic ticket, was forcibly taken by Know Nothings, locked up, and kept from voting, against his will and consent. Besides this, many illegal votes were received on the Know Nothing

Tennessee.—The indications are that, notwithstanding the success which attended the gerrymandering efforts of the Know Nothings a few years ago, the Democrats have carried both branches of the State Legislature by decided majorities, thus securing the election of two U. S. Senators. It is believed that the majority for Gen. Harris, the Democratic candidate for Governor, will exceed 40,000.

The delegation to the next Congress will probably stand 7 Democrats to 3 Know Nothings—a Democratic gain of 2.

North Carolina.—In the second, third, fourth, seventh and eighth congressional districts the Democrats have elected their candidates by very large majorities. In the first and sixth districts the contest was close, but the Washington Union believes has resulted in the election of both the Democratic candidates. In the fifth district the Know Nothing candidate is elected.

The delegation in the next Congress will stand 7 Democrats to 1 Know Nothing. This is, indeed, a most brilliant and signal victory.

Texas.—Hon. Semond Sam Houston and H. T. Denver, Commissioners Joshua Mott, John Stoenck, Ezra Cramer, James H. Besant and Lelias Griffith; Sheriff—Peter Goodman.

A capital ticket, which deserves to be triumphantly elected—and if our friends across the line bat beside them, we shall feel hopeful of such a result.

It is reported that Geo. Sandercock, of the Lancaster Intelligencer, will be appointed Treasurer of the Mint at Philadelphia.—Intelligencer.

Whether true or not, he ought to be appointed, and we hope is. The office is a good one, and therefore such an one as a good editor deserves. Mr. SANDERCOCK is one of the oldest and best editors in the State, always energetic and able, and like all such men has received but little reward for it, because he does not work for reward! We trust, however, that for once Madam Rumor is not lying, and that the Mint at Philadelphia will be honored with the presence of Mr. SANDERCOCK as its Treasurer.—Citizen Democrat.

Let It Slide.—Rev. William Beecher, in a speech at North Brookfield on the 4th, is said to have made use of the following expression: "God help the Union to slide to perdition."

While so many of his self-styled ministers are giving it a lift that way, says the Boston Post, we don't see much inconsistency in the request. It would not be orthodox to reply that only the devil has an interest in the peopling of perdition, and that his calling on God for help shows that consummate impudence has not ceased to be the least of Satanic virtues. Seriously, the reverend gentleman's invocation or imprecation rather, is what would be deemed in a layman little short of blasphemy.

As evidence of the correctness of the policy of the Administration in Kansas, it is a fact worthy of mention that the most respectable of the old organs of the Whig party, are endorsing both the correctness and patriotism of that policy. Thus, the National Intelligencer is out with a long and able leader of this character. The New York Commercial Advertiser does the same thing. They all pronounce the present defiant attitude of Lane and his Topeka party in building up a government within a government as a rank rebellion, not only against the laws of the Territory, but against the laws of the United States.

We do not hesitate to say that ninety-nine in one hundred of all the thieves, murderers, blacklegs, gamblers, ruffians, shoulder-hitters, disbursers, of "hell damnation," in fine of all villainy, vote the Democratic ticket.—New Haven Courier.

This is the old slang, but as Republicans claim to have nothing black about it but its principles, and to possess all the honesty of the nation, the Detroit Free Press says the late State Treasurer of Ohio, a Republican, is a defaulter to the amount of $700,000 or $800,000; the Treasurer of Sandusky county, Ohio, a Republican, is a defaulter to the amount of $5,000; the Treasurer of Van Wert county, Ohio, a Republican, is a defaulter to the amount of $1,215; the Treasurer of Delaware county, Ohio, a Republican, is a defaulter to the amount of $18,000!

Boys," said a colored individual, disclosing a small coffin which he carried along under his cloak, "Boys, don't laugh—I use a funeral."

An old woman out west is collecting all the Republican newspapers she can lay her hands on, to make soap of. She says they are a "desput sight better than ashes—they are most as good as clear lie."

Gen. Lane has been re-elected to Congress from Oregon by a handsome majority.

Newspaper Change.—Gen. Bowman has disposed of the Bedford Gazette, which paper he has edited with ability for about twenty-five years, to Messrs. D. F. Myers and G. W. Benford.

A Boston paper states that a young and remarkably handsome lady has been arrested in that city for obstructing the side walks by too great a display of crinoline. The lady was discovered it was counterfeit.

The most fashionable amusement among our young men just now is chasing hoop.

Look Out for Counterfeits.—A number of counterfeit $5 bills on the York Bank, Pennsylvania, are in circulation at Harrisburg, and will doubtless find their way here. They are said to be well executed, and liable to deceive even experienced judges of bank paper. The Harrisburg Herald mentions a gentleman who took $15 of this trash before he discovered it was counterfeit.

The most fashionable amusement among our young men just now is chasing hoop.

Tall Oats.—A stalk of oats was taken from a field of Mr. Aaron Funk, near this place, a few days since, which measured eight feet and four inches, and which is said to be a fair average of the field.—Waynesboro Record.

A Large Hay Field.—Mr. Guthrie, of Chicago, Illinois, has one field of 850 acres of hay, enclosed with good pine board and cedar post fence. It is cutting from other fields 1,000 acres besides, and expects to cut and press this year 5,000 tons of hay.

Protection from Monopoly.—In various counties of England protective societies have been formed of persons who pledge themselves not to purchase a thimble full of sugar until it has declined four pounds per pound.

Mortality Among U. S. Senators.—Out of the fifty-nine members of the Senate during the last Congress no less than five have already passed away, viz.: Messrs. Clayton, of Delaware; Bell, of New Hampshire; Atwater, of Mississippi; Butler, of South Carolina; and Buck, of Texas.

Overwhelming Know Nothing Defeats!

Disfranchising Naturalized Citizens.

We have every reason to be satisfied with the Democratic triumph in Kentuck ky, but it would have been more sig nificant, but for the shameful conduct of the Know Nothings, when they had the uncontrollable power. The Madison

Democrat tells us that in that county in 1855, Gov. Morehead, the candidate of the Know Nothing party, obtained a majority of four hundred and sev enty-seven votes; this was reduced at the Presidential election in November last to two hundred and fifty-five, and at the election on Monday week, one of the Know Nothing candidates was elec t ed by a majority of only twenty-six votes, and the other by only seventy.

The members of Congress elected are—

Henry C. Burnett, Samuel O.

Peyton, Albert G. Talbot, Joshua

J. Jewett, John M. Elliott, James B.

Clay, John C. Mason and John W.

Stevenson, Democrats; and Humphrey

Marshall and Warren L. Underwood,

Know Nothings, (the latter uncertain, although he had 1,775 majority two years ago.) The Democrats gain 4 and the Know Nothings lose 3, making a net

Democratic gain of 8.

Tennessee.—The indications are that, notwithstanding the success which at tended the gerrymandering efforts of the Know Nothings a few years ago,

the Democrats have carried both branc hes of the State Legislature by de cided majorities, thus securing the el ection of two U. S. Senators. It is be lieved that the Know Nothing party were beaten by County or City Courts, and by excluding others legally entitl ed to vote. One man, who was a leg al voter and a native citizen, who avow ed his intention near the polls to vot e the Democratic ticket, was forcibly taken by Know Nothings, locked up, and kept from voting, against his wi ll and consent. Besides this, many ille gitimate votes were received on the Know Nothing side.

The delegation to the next Congress will stand 7 Democrats to 3 Know

Nothings—a Democratic gain of 2.

North Carolina.—In the second, third, fourth, seventh and eighth congressional districts the Democrats have elected their candidates by very large major

Secretary Dobbins.—The incident to which the Hon. James C. Dobbin owed his cabinet appointment is thus given in an exchange paper:

"He was in the Baltimore Convention, and was the instrument of Gen. Pierce's nomination. On the 4th ballot Pierce had 55 votes, the largest number he had received. The 5th ballot commenced, and twelve States voted, with but slight changes from the previous ballot. Then, as the State of North Carolina was called, Mr. Dobbin rose, and in a timely speech announced that his delegation cast their votes for Franklin Pierce, which fact at once cured the nomination for the latter gentleman."

A Clerical Horse-jockey.—A few days since a minister in Seneca Falls, N. Y., hired a livery horse and wagon to go a journey. He was absent two days, swapped horses six times, and came back to the stable with the same horse he took out, having made $100 by his operations.

A Pedestrian First.—A party of pedestrians reached the Tip-Top House, Mount Washington, N. H., on the 5th of August. Up to that time they had walked 184 miles. They climbed up to the summit of Mount Washington via Tuckerman's Ravine, etc., passing thru' the great snow arch, which is 75 feet long, 10 feet high, and 25 feet wide!

Northern Capital at the South.—The Memphis Navy Yard grounds have been sold for $800,000 to an association of Northern capitalists, who will establish thereon several factories and a repairing dock.

Ingenious Mode of Escape.—On Saturday a convict escaped from the State prison at Sing Sing, N. Y., by throwing a plank in the river on which he got ashore, wheeling fellow convicts encircled him with shavings from the shapels. In this guise he floated with the tide past the wharves, and has not been heard of since.

The wheel of fortune is continually turning; those that are up to-day may be down to-morrow, and those that are down to-day may be up to-morrow, as witness the following:—A Bengali girl, who solicited alms in the streets of Philadelphia, got taken to California a few years since, grew into hand some girlhood, won the admiration of a millionaire there, was married to him, and has recently returned to Philadelphia, equal in beauty and wealth to any or those of whom she formerly sought charity.

The Big Safe.—A safe measuring 54 feet high, by 42 feet wide, and weighing 4,300 pounds, has been attracting much attention at the office of the FARMER'S NEW MECHANIC'S SOCIETY'S INSTITUTION, in S. W. corner of the public square. Everybody nearly in town has been to see it. Our friends from the country have been and are still dropping in to see this, the largest safe ever brought into the country.

This safe furnishes another ground for confidence to depositors. The security for the depots they make is of the same character, and as extensive as those afforded by a bank to its depositors, the stockholders in the one and the other being in the same manner liable. The safe-keeping of the monies and the security to depositors thus afford a double safeguard to those thinking of depositing their moneys where, instead of taking risks, they will produce interest—in the Society's institution.

There are occasions when even the healthiest people need change the changes of diet, of the weather, and hundreds of other causes, producing a laxity in the system that needs correcting, or in other words, the liver becomes slightly deranged, and needs a stimulant. All who feel themselves in this situation will try Dr. Sandiford's Invigorator, they may be sure of relief, as we can testify to its efficacy in curing headache, indigestion, Sour Stomach, and other ill-conveniences in a family. It acts as a medicine, easier and better than any dose of pills we ever saw, well, and is so mild that the small infant can take it.

W. A. D. BUCHLER, Agent for Gettysburg; Wm. Berlin, Hanover; and Charles R. Henry, Abbottstown.

Holiday's Ointment and Pills.—Possessed of these remedies, every man is his own family physician. His wife and children are troubled with eruptions, sores, tumors, white swellings, sore throat, asthma, or any affection of the skin, glands or muscles, a persevering use of the ointment is all that is necessary to produce a radical cure. If on the other hand the internal organs are assailed by disease, whether it be located in the liver, the stomach or the intestines, he can eradicate it by administering the pills to the sufferer, under the guidance of the clear directions which accompany each box.

The Cornwall Ore Banks.

These immense deposits of iron-ore, at Cornwall, Lehigh county, a short distance from the borough of Lehman, are among the natural wonders of the world. To the proprietors, the Messrs. Cole and, they are an inexhaustible source of wealth. They have been frequently described in the local newspapers, and yet the great mass of the people of the State, even those living in the immediate neighborhood, are ignorant of their existence, except by name. As the Lehman Valley Railroad, now open, in connection with the North Lehman Railroad, conveys the traveler directly to the spot, we cannot do better than advise summer tourists to visit Cornwall. The annexed brief description of the ore-banks will show that to the man of science, the geologist, and even the more sober, after novelties for the sake of diversion, a sight of them cannot be otherwise than interesting:

"There appears to be three conical mounds, rising up from two to three hundred feet above the level of the plain, and covering an area of about ninety acres, the entire contents of which is a mass of the most solid and best iron-ore in Pennsylvania—also it is the deposit of the Democratic County Convention. There is no removing supererogatory earth, and sifting and sorting here, and no work required. The whole hill is cut down in benches, as its contractors would remove gravel for an embankment, and every pound dug is iron-ore, that neither requires roasting nor preparation before going into the furnace. These mines have been worked one hundred years, and they look as though they might last for a thousand more."

"We learn that Mr. Warden, a competent engineer, has made a measurement of the mines, from which he estimates them to contain fully one-half of the ore above the water level; and it is quite probable that there are twice as much below the water level. According to this estimate, here is a single tract of land occupying the room of an ordinary Pennsylvania farm, but would pay the whole debt of the State, and leave large surplus."

"This one is now being sold and worked up at the rate of about four hundred tons per day, and when the Lehman Valley Railroad is built, two thousand tons of it a day can be sold. All that is now taken away has to be hauled in wagons over a plank road five miles to the Union Canal. When the railroad is finished tracks can be laid into the pits, and the ore shoveled into the cars from the banks, and these mounds will furnish trade for a railroad for a hundred years to come. What a magnificent estate—what an invaluable deposit is here, being enough to underpin for ten railroad tracks round the entire world, including sea and land!"

Shrewsbury Camp Meeting.—The camp meeting for Shrewsbury circuit will be held in Lowe's woods, near the Fredland Depot, and upon the line of the Northern Central Railroad, commencing August 20th, and will be in charge of Rev. A. A. Krause, Presiding Elder, and Revs. Henry Fultown and F. E. Cawin. The camp is located in a beautiful grove a short distance beyond the Maryland line.

Poisons and Antidotes.—A distiller in Kentucky publishes a letter in the Ohio Farmer, in which he says he has discovered an effective remedy for the hog cholera, which has been prevailing so extensively in the West. His remedy is, as soon as he finds the hogs beginning to get sick or to die, to mix a quantity of arsenic with their food, and that invariably makes them healthy again. The powerful animal poisons of the arsenic overcome the vegetable poison in the still stops. We wish to urge the inquiry how far the effect of this double poisoning neutralizes each other promptly and with fidelity.

Yours truly, ZACHARIAH MYERS, Tyrone tpa., April 27, 1857.
